

A Modern and Stylish Stay at Springfields

When looking for a break away in the UK, it's difficult to know where to start, you want a bit of calm, a bit of activity, good food, comfort, cleanliness and luxury all rolled in one! Insight has discovered just the place in the luxuriously comfortable four-star Springfields Hotel.

Established a year ago, Springfields is a stunning place to stay, where luxury comes as second nature. Built in 1939, using reclaimed bricks from Michelle Arms, it was actually a public house built in 1901, which stood right near to where the hotel stands today.

All eleven rooms are en-suite and come complete with your own flat screen TV, access to broadband internet, tea and coffee tray, hair dryer and ironing facilities. The hotel is exceptionally clean with the highest of standards.

We had a chat with hotel owner, Lyn Williams, to discover her inspiration behind the look of the hotel: "The building was built to an exceptional standard, so the interior was created to reflect this standard further. The hotel took three years to build, and I personally furnished all the rooms myself, a process that was very enjoyable. I discovered I had quite a flair for interior designing!" Lyn explained. Comfortable and stylish, each room is furnished individually to a modern high end standard yet remains cosy at the same time. The hotel has a really laid back and friendly warmth to it, with all the luxury you would expect from a four-star hotel.

You will be spoilt for choice when it comes to breakfast, with continental and any variant of the full English breakfast in plentiful supply, all cooked fresh with delicious aromas to stir you in the morning.

Situated in a quiet and peaceful part of Horsham in West Sussex, everything you could need is close by. A popular, friendly public house next door provides the best ales for miles and with free parking at the hotel you need not worry about going far to get to bed! Serving fresh food and fun in equal measures, the Malt Shovel Pub is in the perfect location to complement your stay. The town centre, with an abundance of attractions, quality restaurants, and activities to enjoy, is just a two minute walk away- far enough to keep a peaceful hotel yet close enough to stroll to.

Local attractions should keep you well and truly busy for your stay with something for everyone. Horsham is a beautiful market town that can be reached easily from the M23 and A24 or by rail. The location is great, with Brighton just a 45 minute drive away and London just an hour.

For the sporting fans Horsham is a great place to come and stay, golf and cricket clubs are nearby with Goodwood Races a short journey too. A local farm and the Royal Botanical gardens supplies the fun for nature lovers and with a handful of excellent theatres and an array of yummy restaurants.

Don't just take our word for it; the guest book speaks for itself,
"A warm and friendly hotel with superb facilities and staff. I would recommend this hotel to anyone planning on staying in Horsham." Joseph Fowler. "A small, friendly, beautifully furnished hotel, I would highly recommend it" Val Hardy
